This is an excellent analysis of European universalism, which serves as an ideological rationalization for pan-European racism, Orientalism, and imperial control.

European Universalism: The Rhetoric of Power by Immanuel ...

Ever since the Enlightenment, Western intervention around the world has been justified by appeals to notions of civilization, development, and progress. The assumption has been that such ideas are universal, encrusted in natural law. But, as Immanuel Wallerstein argues in this short and elegant philippic, these concepts are, in fact, not global. Rather, their genesis is firmly rooted in European thought and their primary function has been to provide justification for powerful states to ...

European Universalism: The Rhetoric of Power | Sociology

"European Universalism: The Rhetoric of Power" was written by Immanuel Wallerstein in 2006. This book is divided into four chapters, and is based on three lectures which Wallerstein held in University of British Columbia. Chapter 1 deals with justifications used by European powers in times of colonization and during their interventions. Europeans have been stating that their expansion is beneficial for humanity, it has been presented as historically necessary based on theological ...

Immanuel Wallerstein - Wikipedia

European Universalism is an examination of the claims by which the hegemonic powers of the capitalist world-system, such as the United States, justify their dominance. Historically this has been justified by an appeal to "universal values," which supposedly are or should be held by all cultures and societies.
