At the tender age of twenty-one, Kade Hutchins is at a crossroads, having endured enough hardship to last a thousand lifetimes. With money tight and career at a standstill, he's running out of time and options. The day he applies for a job that isn't exactly in his field of expertise and meets his new boss, Mr. Preston, is the day his fate is changed irrecoverably. Luke Preston is the kind of man others envy. Rich, successful and unattached, his no-nonsense, 'take no prisoners attitude' has made him one of the highest profile litigators in Manhattan. He's also a man with secrets. Secrets he wants kept under wraps since tragedy rocked his privileged existence to the core. When Kade, a man some fifteen years his junior steps foot inside his office, Luke wonders if his heart will survive.

"Elizabeth Nel served as Winston Churchill's personal secretary during World War II. The vivid and human details of her experiences, of her impressions and memories of that great man at the height of the conflict against Hitler, make this compelling reading. An epilogue about the subsequent life of Elizabeth Nel over the past 60 years brings the book up to date."--Book cover.

Elizabeth Nel served as Winston Churchill's personal secretary during World War II. The vivid and human details of her experiences, of her impressions and memories of the irascible and loveable war hero, take up the story of Churchill's life at No. 10 where the BBC's impressive drama, The Gathering Storm, leaves off-when Churchill took over the reins of Government at the outset of the war. Finally, the author, Elizabeth Nel, at 90 years of age, looks back across the years. "Mrs Nel was Mr Churchill's secretary from 1941 to 1945 and her experiences, from the first day of inevitable blunders to the wartime meetings in Canada, the United States, Moscow, Yalta and Casablanca to which she accompanied him, are told with a modest restraint."-The Times Literary Supplement "She was by his side when Germany attacked Russia; when Pearl Harbour, the fall of Tobruk and Arnhem occurred. But somehow the distant roar of guns is dimmed by the sweat of being Mr Churchill's secretary."-Daily Express "It is a personal book, but one that shows the great admiration Churchill was able to inspire in those who worked with him."-New York Herald Tribune

Katie is a high-powered professional woman with a chance of a life time to be the personal assistant to the most powerful man in the country, Damien Drake. When she finally gets to meet the man, he doesn't leave the best first impression for her. He makes her feel like he wants more from her than her professionalism. However, she is happy to hear it when she is told that she got the job. Katie starts working from Mr. Drake's house, taking care of his personal business affairs. She loves her new job, the people she is working with, and her new favorite thing to read, the series of novels she found in his study. They are all written by Mr. Drake himself, and the main character, a vampire, shares his first name. She thinks that Mr. Drake is a bit full of himself at first to name the vampire after himself, but then she soon finds out that these aren't works of fiction. Damien is over 600 years old and tired of being alone. The man he has in charge of his business affairs, has found a new personal assistant for him. The person has worked within the company for a few years and has been a very determined and valuable employee. They seem to be perfect for the job, however, unlike his usual personal assistants, which are men, this one is an intriguing and beautiful woman named, Katherine Wright. Damien wants her for more than just a personal assistant, he wants her as his mate, and he always gets what he wants.

I am haunted. I sleep with the lights on. I avoid closed spaces. Row and Rhine Associates is open, bright, and has no secrets. But the receptionist hates me. Mr. James Row hates me. Mr. Leo Rhine looks like he's ready to pounce on me. I keep my distance, work hard with my head down, until they claim I am the only one who can save the company from an impending social disaster. Now I work in close proximity with both James and Leo. Late at night. Near the dark. Every time panic builds in my chest James is there. Why do I trust him? He reminds me so much of the ghost that haunts me. But could he be what saves me? This is a standalone story about Lily and James endearing romance!

"A Star is Bored is an absolute knockout. Riotously funny and wickedly tender." — Taylor Jenkins Reid, New York Times bestselling author of Daisy Jones and the Six "Wildly funny and irreverent... Lane ' s writing lifts the novel far above its gossamer Hollywood setting, suffusing [the novel] with a complex sensitivity." - The New York Times Book Review A hilariously heartfelt novel influenced in part by the author ' s time assisting Carrie Fisher. People Magazine Best Book of Summer 2020 - Named a Must-Read Summer book by Town & Country - Named One of the 14 Best Books of Summer 2020 by Harper's Bazaar - One of Library Journal's 2020 "Titles to Watch" - One of the 30 Best Beach Reads According to Parade Magazine She needs an assistant. He needs a hero. Charlie Besson is tense and sweating as he prepares for a wild job interview. His car is idling, like his life, outside the Hollywood mansion of Kathi Kannon, star of stage and screen and People magazine 's Worst Dressed list. She's an actress in need of assistance, and he's adrift and in need of a lifeline. Kathi is an icon, bestselling author, and award-winning movie star, most known for her role as Priestess Talara in a blockbuster sci-fi film. She 's also known in another role: Outrageous Hollywood royalty. Admittedly so. Famously so. Chaotically so, as Charlie quickly discovers. Charlie gets the job, and his three-year odyssey is filled with late-night shopping sprees, last-minute trips to see the aurora borealis, and an initiation to that most sacred of Hollywood tribes: the personal assistant. But Kathi becomes much more than a boss, and as their friendship grows Charlie must make a choice. Will he always be on the sidelines of life, assisting the great forces that be, or can he step into his own life's leading role? Laugh-out-loud funny, and searingly poignant, Byron Lane's A Star is Bored is a novel that, like the star at its center, is enchanting and joyous, heartbreaking and hopeful.

It was mortifying! How had Kate ended up in hotel tycoon Zack Boudreaux's office in nothing but her underwear? Zack appeared to assume the worst and Kate could hardly blame him. But she had no clothes, passport or plane ticket home. She would have to hope Zack could help her.... And he did. First with a bathrobe, and then with a job. She'd be at his beck and call as his very personal assistant....
