An ivory tower is a metaphorical place—or an atmosphere—where people are happily cut off from the rest of the world in favor of their own pursuits, usually mental and esoteric ones. From the 19th century, it has been used to designate an environment of intellectual pursuit disconnected from the practical concerns of everyday life. Most contemporary uses of the term refer to academia or the college and university systems in many countries.

The Ivory Tower was not just a blue and white block. THE MEMORIES: The Ivory Tower was an imposing structure, visible from various parts of Kampala City and yet last Sunday, the historic building was gutted by fire. The incident brought some alumni to tears, while many expressed sadness because for most people that attended the institution, the blue and white Ivory Tower was more than just a building A ndrew Kaggwa writes.
