~~Kingdom Come by Ballard, J. G. (ebook)~~

In Kingdom Come, as in Ballard's short stories and in novels like Crash, the rhythmical balance of the sentences has a tranquilizing effect, like the shushing roar of the ceaseless traffic on the motorway outside Brooklands.... In his final, elegiac vision of suburban apocalypse, Ballard once again allows us to imagine the unthinkable.

J.G. Ballard in interview, 2006. Ballard's final novel, Kingdom Come, a dystopian account of consumerism as a type of 'soft fascism', received lukewarm reviews and suggestions that the author was, perhaps, finally losing his touch – that the metaphors seemed strained, the text confusing and ambiguous. M
