"We Are All the Same" forces the reader to enter an emotional state that opens the heart to the raw brutality of the consequences of AIDS and the unfortunate position that many developed nations take as they turn a blind eye to what is commonly referred to as the "Dark Continent." Angela, PhD Candidate.

We know we will never face this world alone, alone 'Cause everybody needs His perfect love Just like every flower needs the rain Reminding us the whole world over We are all the same. And God is reaching out His hand to us As all across the earth we call His name Reminding us the whole world over Deep at heart, we are all the same, oh, yes we are. Reminding us the whole world over

Natalie Grant - We Are All The Same Lyrics / MetroLyrics

We are all the same but different from each other as well. Humans are born with some hard-wired behaviours that are a part of our genetic heritage. These are the behaviours we demonstrate just because we are humans. Another level of innate behaviours has to do with our sex and sex hormones.

We are all capable of great things, no matter what anyone says. We might not be personally the Same as in our lives or what we do and what have , but we are all human and should respect each and every race, or religion. Humans are humans, we are all the same and we should treat everyone equally since we are all equal.

John Locke wrote: "Being all equal and independent, no one ought to harm another in his life, health, liberty, or possessions." The Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the European Convention on Human Rights are not just a piece of paper. They are product of a long struggle and fight of the people who believed that we all deserve the same chances. People who believed that everyone have the right of a life and human decency.

We're all the same!" This is something we hear at events or when consulting with the public, usually relating to our BME Mental Health team, or the Co-Creating Healthy Change project which encourages under- represented groups to engage directly with service providers and have their voices heard. We understand the sentiment.
